CRYING SHAME

Words and Music by DON SCHLITZ, BRET MAHER and MICHAEL JOHNSON

Not too fast (G played as J J)

© Copyright 1987 by MCA MUSIC PUBLISHING, A Division of MCA INC., and DON SCHLITZ MUSIC, 1755 Broadway, New York, NY 10019, ATV MUSIC (WELBECK), BLUE QUILL MUSIC and TONKA TUNES Rights of ATV MUSIC (WELBECK)/BLUE QUILL MUSIC Controlled and Administered by APRIL MUSIC INC.
under license from ATV MUSIC (WELBECK) and BLUE QUILL MUSIC
International Copyright Secured Made in U.S.A. All Rights Reserved

MCA MUSIC PUBLISHING
And you know she didn’t even tell me
And she never really meant to make me

She said she was sorry and she wasn’t even mean to me
She said she’d probably be a thousand miles away

She, she, she

She, she, she

She really broke my heart when she loaded up her car and said goodbye
She promised me forever but you know she could never live a

She, she, she

She, she, she

She, she, she bye, bye, bye, bye, All alone in this lie, lie, lie, lie, All alone in this way, way, way, way, All alone with my blues corner bowed down, won d'rin' how we corner booth, down, won d'rin' will ever turn this way, the truth? a round.

When 'Cause when G

love takes the blame, well it's a crying shame.

G

Baby it's a crying, baby it's a crying when love takes the blame, well it's a crying shame.

G

Ooh, a it's a crying shame.
love takes the blame well it's a crying

(Ooh, it's a crying shame) Love takes the blame when only the tears remain and no one's there to hear you call when you need them most of all

CODA

love takes the blame it's a crying shame

Ooh,

G

it's a crying shame

Ooh,

it's a crying baby it's a crying, ooh