If I Fell From Grace With You (T. Kimmel & L. Aschmann)

I deciphered this tablature while reviewing the video of Michael's performance at Rockford IL in 1998 (1:06:48 mark). I never got a chance to see him perform personally and I am the poorer for that. But through MJBLUE his music lives on, and I do my best.

I found this to be a little more complex a tune in that I am not used to some of his fingering styles. That's partly what makes his playing all that more fluid and seemingly effortless as he can effect chord changes from different hand positions so well; a testament to his classical training I'm sure. I admit I took a liberty with the fingering at bar 8 on the second tablature page to make it easier for me to play and allow for a smoother transition for me. The same notes are there, only on different strings. Again this is what works for me, while other fingering may work for you, so be it.

And as with all his songs he puts his everything into the interpretation. He 'sees' so naturally how it can be played to summon up emotion in the listener so well. The original version as Tom Kimmel plays it is so good, and I think Michael manages to coax a bit more out of this tune with his varying tempo and subtle changes in voicing for maximum effect. This is one of his very finest interpretations I've come across. It is just such a great song.

And of course my thanks to Paul Ashley who gave me the idea to do this for you.

Enjoy,

MICHAEL JOHNSON

INSTRUMENTAL ⇒

If I fell from grace with you I pray I'd never fall in love again

If our ship should sail from view I'd never want to feel another breath of wind

If you lost your faith in me I don't know what I'd do

And I'm not sure who I'd be if I fell from grace with you

If you turned and walked away would I find the voice to turn you 'round

Would you hear the words I'd say somewhere inside the hollow sound

If you never call my name how could I answer true

If you turned and walked away and I fell from grace with you
IF I FELL FROM GRACE WITH YOU - 2

Would my life roll on as if gray were blue

As if right were wrong and December June

If I never touched your face morning still would find the light

Not a river lose its way or careless moon for... get to rise

If you wandered from this place the roses still would bloom

But who would hold me close this way if I fell from grace with you

If I fell from grace with you
