The Moon is Still Over Her Shoulder

Hugh Prestwood

Capo: None

SONG SHEET NOTES

I derived the chord positions shown by listening to Michael Johnson's recording of this song.

In some instances, due to my level of talent being far below that of Mr. Johnson, I may have consciously altered chords to make for easier playing. In addition, this being a song recorded not purely as a guitar solo, I interpreted it as best I could.

I cannot contend that what is shown is how the original was played. It should also be noted that, from what I've seen, Michael Johnson did not necessarily play a song the same way every time.

Not having the patience or time to write tablature so it is up to each player to figure out what the picking hand is to do.

It is my hope that, at the least, this document could serve as a starting point for someone wanting to play the wonderful songs that Michael Johnson gave to us.

Sincerely,

Paul Ashley

Lpa53@yahoo.com
The Moon is Still Over Her Shoulder

Capo: None

Hugh Prestwood

C1 That the moon is still o-ver her shoulder
C2 And the moon is still o-ver her shoulder

C1 And the ribbon is still in her hair
C2 And the stars are still fall-ing a-bove

C1 And he can still see her dan-cing
C2 And she never gets one min-ite old-er

C1 And the music is still in the air
C2 And he's still fall-ing in love
C3 (repeat C2 and end with D chord)
The Moon is Still Over Her Shoulder

Hugh Prestwood

Capo: None
She is fixed in his mind like the picture
He's kept in his wallet for years
And the image has never been tarnished
By the blood, sweat and tears
And to him it appears

That the moon is still over her shoulder
And the ribbon is still in her hair
And he can still see her dancing
And music is still in the air

Sometimes he finds it amazing
That all of his children are wed
When their mother is still turning eighteen
And turning his head
She still turns his head

And the moon is still over her shoulder
And the stars are still falling above
And she never gets one minute older
And he is still falling in love